Week of June 20, 2023

Sparking Minds, Enriching Souls, Inspiring Futures

Father's Day is celebrated around the world recognizing and honoring the contribution of fathers and father figures in the family. June 18th, we celebrate all these special gentlemen that play a significant role in the lives of their children. Fathers are superheroes, who may not have superpowers, but always have super hearts. I hope they all enjoy the day!

Students may dress down on June 21 & June 22

We are once again partnering with School Tool Box to help make it convenient for parents to buy supplies for the 2023-2024 school year. Supply lists may be found on DWCA's homepage. Families do not have purchase the items from this list, simply use the list to purchase your child's supplies throughout the summer.

LAST DAY OF SCHOOL

DWCA's Last Day of School Thursday, June 22nd

JUNETEENTH

A very special thank you to Mrs. Guerrier and Mrs. Murat for providing our students with a special presentation on Juneteenth for grades 6-8.
