DWCA Celebrates Women's History Month

This month we honor the courageous women who have helped our Nation build a fairer and more just society. Throughout the month students will be learning about the powerful women who have strengthened our Nation and have opened doors wider for all of us. DWCA is celebrating the women in our school community with a Career Day on March 19th and our Special Area Teachers will be hosting a special exhibition on March 26th. More info to follow.
